1. "Negotiations are in progress [May 1953] between various shipyards [not specified] and Polish buyers regarding the possibility of further purchases of new ships for the Polish Merchant Marine. These ships are to be used for transportation of war materials and strategic goods to Communist China.

2. "The Chinese-Polish Shipbroker Company, located in Tientsin at 158, Ma Chang Dao, is conducting the negotiations. It has a branch office in Gdynia (Ul.10 Lutego No 14).

3. "Capital for the purchase of these ships has been supplied by the Soviet and Chinese governments. Poland is to participate on a percentage basis only, providing part of the crews. Some Chinese, Koreans and Soviet sailors are expected to be hired for the new ships.

4. "The vessels will sail under flags of Poland and of the German Democratic Republic."
